U. S. ON THE BRINK OF WAR

Germany's Reply Will Be Blunt Refusal. It is Believed In Holland.

Paris, May 18.—Germany's reply to the American note on the sinking of the Lusitania will be sent Thursday, according to the Matin's Amsterdam correspondent, who says he is informed it will justify the attack on the steamer on the ground that the submarine commander has affirmed in his report that only one torpedo was fired, which convinces him that the second explosion was due to the fact that the ship carried munitions of war.

The report is said to state that the torpedo was fired in such a way the Lusitania would not have sunk if she had not had explosives aboard.

The Matin's correspondent says it is reported in Amsterdam that Germany will throw the responsibility for the disaster on England and on the American authorities who permitted passengers to embark on a ship carrying explosives.

It is believed in Holland, he asserts, that Germany will decline to modify its methods of submarine warfare.

for Honolulu, where he will be during most of the campaign, and the "drys" here who supported Senator James say that they do not think he would permit his frank to be used to circulate literature against them, even if he did take an opposite view to them on civic matters.

It will cost the "dry" voters of both parties $10,000 to get a similar circulation of the Groghan letter, as it appears to be the purpose of the liquor interests, the "drys" say, to make it appear that President Wilson is a champion of the liquor interests by circulating the Groghan letter.

The frank is not alone used, but the speech being printed by the Government allows the "wets" to circulate it at no cost except the carrying of the letters to the Postoffice.

The Editor of the Crittenden Record-Press does not for one moment believe the above telegraphic article or any part of it and we challenge anyone to show that the "frank" of Senator James is being used during his absence in Honolulu on committee work and if used at all we demand the proof that he is aware of it. We believe the above is a scheme hatched up to injure Senator James and stab him in the back during his absence from the states when he could not defend himself.

Louisville, May 19.—Fifty thousand loaves of bread will be given by L. T. Cooper, the "Tanlac man," to the poor people of Louisville.

The "bread line," as this unique charitable act is termed, was inaugurated in Louisville Sunday morning, and between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, several thousand loaves of bread were distributed to the worthy on the big vacant lot on Walnut Street, next to The Daily Herald, in ample time for Sabbath dinner.

Mr. Cooper awarded an order for the 50,000 loaves of bread to the American Baking Company. The bread is of the very best quality.

When seen at the Seelbach, where the noted visitor is stopping, Mr. Cooper said:

"I have anticipated the beginning of this work among the poor with keen interest. I have wanted to perform some small service of this kind in the metropolis of my native state, Kentucky, for several years.

"Therefore, the initial order for the bread, consisting of fifty thousand loaves, has been given to the American Baking Company, and the work has begun.

"We gave away several thousand loaves Sunday, and each time we will meet the demands."

The sale of Tanlac, the famous medicine being introduced in Louisville by the personal direction of Mr. Cooper, is now very great, and is steadily increasing. The results in cases of catarrhal affections, or stomach, liver and kidney derangements, are really remarkable, and many of Louisville's best citizens are testifying to the medicine's marvelous merits.

Tanlac can now be bought in Marion at J. H. Orme's drugstore, the exclusive agent for this place. Also at A. T. Brown's drugstore, at Blackford.

NASHVILLE BOOSTER CLUB HERE.

Splendid Body Of Business Men From The Rock City On Their Eleventh Annual Tour.

Marion had the honor of being visited by the Nashville Boosters for an hour last Thursday.

They had their special train of Pullman sleepers and diners, arriving from Henderson at 11:15 a. m. and remaining until shortly after noon. The special was met at the station by a large crowd of our citizens headed by a representative body of business men, and all headed by the band proceeded in automobiles, omnibuses, carriages and many on foot to the Court square where a stand had been decorated for the speakers. J. G. Rochester delivered the address of welcome and made the visitors feel that they were at home and among friends. He was followed by Leland Hume, Vice President of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co., who as organizer and developer of the great Cumberland Telephone system placed himself at the fore rank of American and Southern financial and industrial leaders. He made a brilliant talk on the commercial outlook and what should be the commercial aims and aspirations of Nashville and the South. He declared that the Southern people are marching forward in a great industrial and commercial movement, but they are not "quick stepping" as they could and should. The opportunities of the South, he said, were stupendous, her opportunities were everywhere and the object of this trip was to show the towns they are visiting their opportunities. Mr. Hume spoke of the great progress Marion had made since he was here before, and remarked on the many handsome homes and splendid new business houses. He referred to the Marion office of his Company and the efficient Manager and the greatly increased business being done here, as most gratifying to him and his company.

Goodfellowship between all interests of a city, Mr. Hume named as another factor for progress and growth. He referred to the splendid feeling of fellowship and co-operation that existed between Mayor House, of Nashville, and the Boosters' club and hoped the same conditions were prevalent in Marion. Continuing he said, "do all you can to get capital into Marion, and after you get them, don't do anything to drive them out."

Mr. Hume was followed by Mr. Aaron Bergeda, who after skirmishing with a few jokes, waxed into the earnest and declared that he brought a message of good will from Gov. Rye, of Tennessee to Marion.

The necessity of co-operation and understanding between all business, professional and municipal interests of a community, if it desires to progress and grow was also urged by Mr. Bergeda, and he quoted from a copy of George Bingham's "Hogwallow Kentuckian" a paragraph which he said best expressed the point he was trying to make. To quote: "One feature about a passenger elevator is that they are so conducted that you never hear of two of them in collision." That is the best expression of ideal 'booster' methods I know of, he said.

Bergeda made a strong plea for the establishment of Y. M.

C. Associations and evidently struck a responsive chord in the breasts of his hosts, as he was roundly applauded. He said it was the one thing that Marion needed to help to make it the clean, good city that its citizens must want it to be. He spoke of the magnificent Y. M. C. A. at the capitol of Tennessee and declared that Marion should have one. He gave a solemn pledge on the part of the Nashville Boosters to come to Marion at any time they earnestly desired them to come and help to conduct a campaign to raise money by popular subscription to build a Y. M. C. A. building.

Other and interesting talks were made by:—J. D. Burnett, Percy E. Hooten, Dixon Merrett S. Waters McGill, John Chaffee, Finch Clark and others.

The spirit and purpose of the trip was certainly appreciated by Marion, "whose latchstring hangs on the outside," and who is ever ready to extend the right hand of fellowship to "thrift and enterprise," no matter by whom shown.

Found Dead in Her Yard.

Mrs. Lourissie Cain was found dead in the back yard at her home in Weston on the morning of May 5th. It is supposed that after retiring, she began smothering, getting up from her bed and going out of the room for air, she fell victim to heart failure.

Her only son, C. L. Cain, was in Illinois at work at the time. For this reason Mrs. Cain was living by her self. She was found by a friend, who failing to see her about her daily work, went to see about her.

The funeral was held at Mt. Zion, May 6th, by the writer, and the remains were laid away in the Mt. Zion cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

She leaves one son, Charley, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Necie J. C. Clark, with a host of friends to mourn her loss; but our loss is Heaven's gain. Children you have our sympathy and prayers.

A DAISY FROM MARION

Wins Honors in Sunny Tennessee—Miss Wallace Awarded The Gold Medal.

At the annual Oratorical contest of the High School class at McKinzie, Tenn., on Wednesday night, May 12th, 1915, Miss Daisy Marie Wallace, daughter of Rev. Wm. H. Wallace, and grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Williams, of this city, was unanimously awarded the gold medal by the judges. This will be quite gratifying to the many friends of the little lady, who is not only a beauty but exceedingly bright and well advanced, for her years, while we do not know the ages of those in competition with her we'll venture the assertion that she is the youngest member of the graduating class (or of those competing for the medal.) The Crittenden Record-Press sends its heartiest congratulations.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Talk About War Taxes—Here's Something New.

The Grafton treasury is empty, bankrupt, and the city fathers have been hard put to find some way to raise funds. As all members of the council are married men, they decided that those who enjoy luxuries should pay for them and they passed a law putting a tax of $25.00 on every unmarried man over 28 years of age, and a tax of $10 on every unmarried woman over 25 years of age. A man by proving that he has proposed to a woman in the past year and was refused will be exempt from paying the tax. A woman who can prove that no man has proposed to her during the past year will also be exempt. The law went into effect the first day of April. —Grafton, Ill., News.

An Indiana View Of It.

The destruction of the Lusitania is too horrible to believe possible in this twentieth century.

It is not war; it is the deliberate cold-blooded murder of women and children. It was not done in a frenzy of passion; it was the carrying out of deliberate governmental policy. There is not the excuse of necessity; the hideous crime will have effect on military operations. It is as wanton brutal, insensate as any of the acts that have made Attila and Alva cursed through the ages.

This awful crime stands out in naked hideousness. That it was an act in ruthless contempt and violation of the law of nations may be left out of consideration. The willful destruction of helpless defenseless non-combatants, men women and children, places it by itself as an incident of criminal history. Those responsible for it have earned an immortality of odium and infamy. —Evansville Courier.

The Lemon As A Medicine

(New York Times.)

A nervous headache may frequently be cured by several slices of lemon in a cup of strong tea, and a bilious headache is almost invariably put to rout by a tablespoonful of lemon juice in a small cup of black coffee. The juice of half a lemon in a cup of hot water is an excellent liver corrective and successful substitute for calomel and similar drugs.

Honey, alum and lemon juice is an old fashioned but good remedy for croup. A dash of lemon juice in water makes a pleasant and effective tooth wash, cleaning the teeth and sweetening the breath. In fact, a lemon is pretty much of a concentrated drug store. Outwardly applied, lemon juice and rose-water will remove tan and whiten the skin, and taken inwardly, lemon juice on lump sugar is fine for hoarseness.

Lemon juice with olive oil is far superior as a salad dressing to vinegar and a teaspoonful of lemon juice adds a dainty flavor and whitens the grains of boiling rice or sago. Salt and lemon juice removes rust stains from white goods, and tough meat may be made tender by adding a teaspoonful of lemon juice to the water in which it is to be boiled. If the hands become stained lemon juice will make them white.

The Lemon does not end its useful career even when the juice and pulp have been extracted. The half skins make dainty and attractive receptacles for serving ices or salads, or, dipped in salt the rinds clean brass thoroughly and quickly.

Italians Are Hurrying Out Of Austria.

Udine, Italy May 18.—Italian consuls in Austria are recommending that all Italians leave the country as soon as possible.

As a result of this warning Italian merchants, manufacturers and professional men are arriving today at Udine from points in Austria.

Demand the All-Steel Door Frame In Your SILO

Be sure that your Silo has a solid steel backbone in order to prevent bucking or bulging. The All-Steel Door Frame is the keystone to the Silo. As is the case with other necessary Silo improvements, the All-Steel Door Frame is found in the

SAGINAW ALL-STEEL DOOR FRAME

In constructing the All-Steel Door Frame heavy steel angles are placed in a vertical position for the door posts, with solid steel girders or braces 30 inches apart, horizontally across the opening. The Door frame is built by expert machinist. Heavy pneumatic riveting hammers crush the bars around the rivet hole and girder tight together. See the picture. Note the steel girders that continue past the uprights several inches on either side. Each end of the girder is fastened to the outside of the first stave of the wall with two heavy lag screws.

Now, the other flanges of the upright angles have holes drilled in them at intervals for screws which fasten them to the first staves of the Silo wall, thus making a frame which is absolutely rigid and will not allow the Silo to bulge or buckle nor the doors to bind. You know the results of the binding doors without a steel door frame. It means you have to use a crow-bar or anax to remove them. There is an immense pressure brought to bear on the door frame by the staves and if your frame is not built of solid steel like ours, it cannot withstand this heavy pressure and your Silo doors or then a source of annoyance every time you want to take them out.

The first stave on either side of the door frame is fastened to the steel frame before shipment is made, which makes the erection simple and easy for you.

You are beginning to see what extreme care is used in building the Saginaw Door Frame. I wish it were possible for each one of you to go through the wonderfully equipped plant of the McClure Company and see exactly how the Saginaw Silo is made. The best I can do is to show you in our newspaper, right here at home, pictures of the different improvements and descriptions of how the Steel Built Stave Silo is built.

Saginaw Silo Doors and Door Openings.

The Saginaw Silo has continuous doors with perfectly air tight bearings. The handy levers hold them firmly in position. The inside surface of the doors is perfectly smooth, so the silage settles evenly. The Saginaw has largest door openings of any Silo. It is easier for you to get your feed out of the Saginaw. THE SAGINAW COMBINED DOOR FASTENER AND LEVER is the last word in Silo building. Saginaw levers always work smoothly. We do not depend on the silage to hold the doors in place. Sweet, succulent silage always next to Saginaw doors. No wrenches required. A small boy can operate Saginaw doors.

Withdraws From Race For Democratic Nomination For Governor.

Prof. H. H. Cherry, of Bowling Green, has announced his withdrawal from the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. He stated in his platform that he was opposed to State-wide prohibition at this time, but in his card of withdrawal says no man who knows him doubts for one moment his loyalty to the temperance cause. The bulk of his supporters came from educational ranks and it is believed that they will now line up practically solid for H. V. McChesney, who has been prominently identified with the school interests of the State for years. His political managers, who it is reported persuaded him to take the stand against State-wide against his best judgment, have already come out for Stanley.

Another withdrawal in the Governor's race is expected in a short time.—Shelby News.

He took May's Wonderful Remedy. He got his appetite back and gained in strength right away. He wrote: "I owe you some words of congratulation for your stomach remedy. I could not eat anything but soft food and the bloating from gas got so bad that at one time I had a fainting spell for three hours. I went to one of your Chicago drug stores and got your remedy. I took the remedy and the next morning was relieved. I am getting stronger and can eat anything that comes along."

WANTS TO LIVE UNDER WOODROW WILSON

Huerta to Make His Home in New York.

New York, May 11.—General Victoriano Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, who has been at a local hotel since his arrival in this country a few weeks ago, announced today through his secretary that he intends to make New York his home, having leased a house in Forest Hills, Long Island, where he will live with his family when they arrive from Barcelona, Spain, within the next ten days. Besides his wife, Huerta's family includes five daughters and four sons.

An Extract From The Baraca Bulletin, Of Houston, Texas.

The Baraca Bulletin, official organ of the First Methodist church of Houston, Texas, in its May 2nd issue contains the following notice that will be of interest to the many friends Mrs. Murphey has made during visits here to her sister, Mrs. A. H. Cardin:

ALTAR DECORATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Moore, of Sherman, Tex., pioneers of Texas Methodism, are honored by the placing of the altar decoration today. For nearly fifty years their home has been open to all ministers, their creed being too broad to confine their hospitality to Methodists. However, Bishop J. S. Key, Bishop Galloway, Dr. S. A. Steele, Sam Jones, Rev. W. D. Mountcastle, Rev. J. D. Alderson, Rev. P. C. Archer, Rev. J. M. Binkley, Dr. Reynolds, Dr. H. M. Neely, Dr. McLean and a host of others, living and dead, have delighted to hold this as one of their homes; a place where entertainment, rest and peace were always to be found. Mrs. Zelma Murphey and her sons, Grant and Edwin, place these flowers today as an expression of love to parents and grandparents manifested on Mrs. Moore's birthday.

When the baby takes too much food the stomach turns; the result is indigestion, sourness and vomiting. Frequently the bowels are involved and there is colic pains and diarrhoea. MOORE'S BABY ELIXIR is a grand corrective remedy for the stomach and bowel disorders of babies. It is pure, wholesome and pleasant to take. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by James H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

Letter From Oregon

Enterprise, Ore., May 3rd, 1915.

Editor, Record-Press,
Marion, Ky.

Dear sir and friend:—

Find enclosed herewith, my check, for $1.00 to pay for the Record-Press, another year.

We are pretty well, all of us, except my oldest daughter, Mrs. Lutsch, who is gradually getting worse and I have not much hopes for her.

We are having very nice weather, it has been warm as summer until the last few days, when it commenced raining and is still doing it assuring us good crops this year. It was pretty dry through March and most of April, some of the pessimist were worrying but we always have had plenty of moisture and there was no need to worry.

The new lumber mill is going right along, they have built 17 miles of railroad to their first timber and are now building their mill here and expect to be in operation in the near future. The town is growing fast, over fifty houses are under construction and several business houses are started with several more contemplated. This is just a steady growth, and no boom, the surrounding country is being put in cultivation fast and we are destined to be the banner wheat county in Oregon in the near future. We are still the best stock country in the west but changing to general farming is making cheap range a thing of the past to a great extent.

Enterprise is putting in a sewer system this year and next year will very likely, pave at least two streets. Auto owners are after good roads here as every where else, and it will not be long until they will be the majority here, as every farmer and nearly every one else owns auto or a Ford. Business is fair but we need capital now to develop our natural resources.

Hurrah for Harry McChesney.

With best regards to all old friends and acquaintances, and wishing you health and prosperity, I am

Yours truly,

IN MEXICO

Statements of Mexico Citizens Are Always of Interest to Our Readers.

To many of our readers the streets of Mexico are almost as familiar as those of our own town, and we are naturally interested to read of happenings there. The following report from a well-known and respected resident will be helpful to numbers of men and women here in Marion.

J. O. Tabor, Mexico, Ky., says: "I had kidney trouble for about six years. The pains in my back were severe at times and when I was stooping or lifting, sharp twinges went through my loins. My back always ached more intensely at night and in the morning, I felt very lame. I tired easily, was languid and nervous and had headaches. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and caused me annoyance. I took one and a half boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they rid me of the trouble. I am now in good health."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Tabor had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 5-207

FALL OF TURKISH CAPITAL SHOWN IN PROPHECIES

Ferrero, the great historian has said, "The taking of Constantinople will be the biggest event of the first ninth months of the war, it will be a greater clamorous event even than the battle of Marne."

And well may he have added the most momentous event in the history of the world. Turkey entered the present European conflict because of a desire to again become an independent power. But the prophecies plainly declare that Turkey will find no opportunity for re-establishment. Its drying up is plainly foretold in Rev. 16:12. "And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates and the waters thereof were dried up that the way of the kings of the East might be prepared." No student of the Bible will claim that this refers to the literal river Euphrates for that has been crossed by mighty armies without hindrance since the days of Abraham and if there be any who so claim let us refresh your memory with the fact that the Tigris river is separated from it by only fifteen miles and runs parallel with it 1,400 miles. If we apply a literal interpretation to the prophecy the Tigris river would needs be dried up also, but none so contend, hence we claim it is symbolic.

Three hundred years ago the Ottoman embraced with a few exceptions all the cities prominently mentioned in Bible and classic history and though a powerful nation it has gradually lost its possessions until European Turkey is practically a thing of the past. It has been a slow decaying, drying-up process and the destruction goes apace. Ere-long Turkey in Europe will fall a prize to one of the great powers. This is foreshadowed in the prophecy of Ezekiel 36. It is also foretold in Ezekiel 38 and in the books of Joel and Zaccan that in the end the city of Jerusalem, now owned by the Turks, will be in a state of siege.

Martin Luther said: "If you beat back the Turk the prophecy of Daniel will be fulfilled." Luther understood the power mentioned in Dan. 6:15 to be Turkey, and today as the allies' fleets are battling at the gates of the Dardanelles, who dare gainsay that this prophecy will not soon be a matter of history? But the question naturally arises where it will finally locate? And the prophet answers, "Between the seas in the glorious holy mountains," "Jerusalem, the Holy City," which lies between the Mediterranean sea and the Dead sea, and here he comes to his end and none shall he him." Dan. 11:45.

There are three powers especially noted in prophecy—the king of the North, the king of the South and the king who does according to his will. The king of the North is the power ruling in Syria. In Dr. Adam Clance's commentary he takes the view that the Ottoman Empire is the kingdom of the North. It became such through the division of the kingdom of Greece after the death of Alexander the Great, it being divided into four parts, Turkey comprising the northern division. This is one of the significant facts that point our location on the stream of time as shown by the light of prophecy.

After the capital of the Turk is planted in the "holy mountain at Jerusalem," the time will come when "he shall come to his end," and at that time shall Michael stand up—the great prince which standeth for the children of the people—and there shall be a time of trouble as never was since there was a nation to that same time.

The fate of this wonderful empire trembles in the balance and its fall is soon expected, and how much does this mean to man—

Splendid Medicine Stomach Trouble

I Suffered for Several Years Peruna Restored My Health

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, No. 508 Twelfth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold, and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

Over Ten Years Ago.

"I would not be without Peruna." Although it was over ten years ago that I first gave you my testimonial, I am of the same opinion as when I wrote it, and give you the privilege to use it as you see fit. I still use Peruna when I think it necessary. I am recommending it to my neighbors whenever a chance occurs."

DISAPPEARS IN SEATTLE

Charles Lester Morgan, Of Marion, Former Diplomatic Attache & Newlywed, Is Missing.

Seattle, Wash., May 17.—After three days investigation into the mysterious disappearance here Thursday of Charles Lester Morgan, of Marion, Ky., the authorities are completely at sea. Morgan resigned from the diplomatic service at the American legation in Peking, and married a brilliant young German woman connected with the country's legation in Peking. That was three weeks ago. They arrived here on the steamer Talthybius and registered at the hotel Butler. Thursday afternoon Morgan started for a local bank, and has not been seen since. Parts of Elliott Bay have been dragged for his body. A tug captain claims to have seen a man answering his description jump into the bay. Morgan's bride in German explains her fears that he has met with foul play, by stating that his chief in China warned him to beware of Oriental enemies.

Late yesterday the police were further mystified by receipt of a telegram from Vancouver stating that F. W. Callum, captain of the steamer on which he crossed the Pacific, had talked with Morgan there Saturday. He was apparently being led by a shabbily dressed man. He appeared to be in a highly nervous state, and the authorities fear he may have been kidnapped and was afraid to talk.

Morgan's bride said their plans were to go to San Francisco to-day, there to meet Walter Morgan, of Marion, his brother, and the latter's wife. The four were to return to Marion, where Charles owns a farm and make their home.

The 1914 Congressional Record fails to disclose Morgan as an attache to the American legation in China, and attempts to locate Walter Morgan, in San Francisco have failed. Mrs. Morgan's marriage license shows that they were wed in the home of the Ambassador from The Netherlands.

Charles Lester Morgan, former attache of the American Legation in China, is little known here. He has never owned a farm or property of any kind in this county and has no relatives here so far as is known. A young lady who corresponded with him while he was in Peking, China, heard from him last on May 9 in a letter from Seattle, Wash., stating that he had just arrived there and that he would be in this city the last of this month. His brother Walter is not known here.

Low Railroad Rates and Privileges of Routing Never Before Possible Are Included in the Many Inducements to Visit America's Great Panama Canal Celebration. $50,000,000 Invested; 80,000 Exhibitors Represented.

It is estimated by the traffic experts of the great transcontinental railways that the travel movement westward during the present year, with the great world's Exposition at San Francisco as the goal, will be the greatest in all history. There are but few persons anywhere who have not felt the longing to visit California some time, and with the attraction of the world's greatest and possibly its last universal Exposition to draw them westward those who go traveling in 1915 will "see America first," with San Francisco as an objective.

Some indication of the interest taken in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is found in the pre-Exposition attendance, the greatest in the entire history of expositions, amounting to an average of 10,000 persons a day. These visitors carried away with them to all parts of the country and of the world accounts of the beauties and the marvels they had seen, and as a result the remark has become common throughout the United States and abroad, "It's not a case of 'Can I afford to visit the Exposition?' but 'Can I afford to miss it?'"

The Panama-Pacific International Exposition has more foreign national pavilions than any exposition ever held—this in spite of the European war.

No exposition ever was situated as this one is where such a large number of the scenic wonders of the world can be visited at no increase of cost while en route, going and coming, and it is the only great international Exposition to be ready on time! The rates agreed upon by the great transportation companies, of approximately one-half fare for the round trip, with a ninety day limit, have never been equaled.

Certainly not in this generation, and probably not for generations to come, will such an opportunity be offered to combine in one trip visits to the scenic wonder spots of the continent, with the education and entertainment to be had in the dazzling wonderland that has risen on the shore of the Pacific.

The booklet is intended for prospective visitors and will also contain information concerning the great engineering feat which the Exposition is to celebrate. ALL UNIVERSAL EXPOSITIONS STAND FOR PEACE.

By R. B. Hale, Vice President of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, Who First Suggested the Holding of the Great Exposition to Celebrate the Opening of the Panama Canal.

THE following interesting article by R. B. Hale, vice president of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition of San Francisco, expresses the keynote of this greatest and most wonderful celebration of all time. Mr. Hale is one of the foremost public men of America, and his thoughtful article shows a marvelous grasp of the subject and will prove of value and interest to every reader of this paper.

Most interesting in history, the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, which is now finished, stands revealed as the most interesting Exposition in history. Those who have not yet visited the Exposition should make early plans to visit San Francisco. The railroads are granting low round trip rates, and one can see the United States under more favorable conditions than have ever before obtained. For ty-three nations are participating in the Exposition upon a vast scale. Read Mr. Hale's wonderful article and you will gain an idea of the purpose that inspired the builders of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. He says:

Universal expositions, of which the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is the fourth in the United States, have always stood for peace. In Philadelphia in 1876 the Hon. Joseph R. Hawley, president of the Centennial Exposition, in his opening remarks said: "From the association here of welcome visitors from all nations there may result not alone great benefits to invention, manufacture, agriculture, trade and commerce, but also stronger international friendship and more lasting peace."

"Acquaintance softens prejudice," has been ringing in my ears ever since those three words were uttered by a foreign graduate of one of our American universities in a speech delivered some years ago. The learned statesman, Hon. Elihu Root, voiced the same sentiment when about to leave the high office of secretary of state in substantially these words: "It were impossible for any nation to be at war if the peoples of the conflicting countries understood each other."

Universal expositions soften prejudices, remove commercial antipathies and settle political differences by bringing the people of all nations into friendly intercourse for the discussion of ideas, the exchange of commodities and for the advancement of mankind socially, morally, intellectually and commercially. They reflect the thought and action of peaceful pursuits and reach their greatest successes during or following long periods of national and international peace. Their exhibits are the product of the arts of peace, and their object is the promotion of peaceful activity in thought and word and deed. They are the antithesis of war, the embodiment of peace. Their grounds are set apart as extraterritorial, devoted to the use of all nations and all peoples on a parity and equality. The Panama-Pacific International Exposition grounds today are common to all. No creed or race is barred; all have equal rights and privileges. It is neutral ground for warring or tranquil nations alike. It is one great democracy where all unite in contributing to an expression of gratitude for the present and inspiration for the future, and because the exposition is really the child of peace do we deem it a privilege—aye, even a duty—to enter our protest against the terrible conditions now prevailing in Europe.

"Peace—Peace For Humanity."

It is idle to presume that anything that we can do here today will have any material influence in the immediate settlement of the greatest war in history, involving more than half the people of the civilized world, but we can raise our voices in earnest protest against conditions in Europe too terrible to contemplate in loss of life, in the destruction of property, in the suffering of homeless women and children and in the effect upon the world at large. Commercial activity is checked, industries are paralyzed, civilization is being forced backward, human impulses are being supplanted by the brutal practices of war. The cries of the innocent have sounded a call for relief, and with dynamic force that call is generating a sentiment through the length and breadth of this country for peace. Every one seems sobered and serious and determined. That one word has taken on a new significance, a new meaning—peace—peace for humanity, peace to pursue the upward and onward course of civilization, peace and rest and tranquillity for the millions who suffer, suffering in spirit as those unfortunate soldiers are suffering in body, royalty and subject together in the present awful European conflict. They desire a cessation forever of the super-cruel methods of warfare as a means of settlement of international contention.

Each closing day hope looks forward to the morning, longing that word shall come that our brothers in Europe shall have laid aside their arms. That glorious day must come, and when it does will it not be possible to respond to the world's wall that the sword of anger and of hate be sheathed forever? Then shall come the time for international convention and treaty. Great statesmen will be engaged in negotiating the tremendous document. Speaking out of experience and from afar among myriad minds, we ourselves hope that in this treaty there shall be established such a basis of defense on land as is alone necessary to protect local peace and that such armed ships as are necessary to police the sea shall alone be permitted, each nation contributing its quota to this international naval police, which shall be controlled in its movements by an international admiralty, whose whole duty shall be to preserve peace instead of prepare for war.

Site of Peace Conference.

The Exposition in San Francisco will have reached its highest purpose if it can in any way assist in the settlement of the terrible conflict which is now being waged with such titanic ferocity, bellicose weapons and awful consequences. The Exposition being set apart on extraterritorial grounds, dedicated to the use of all nations on terms of equality, could fittingly, without prejudice or embarrassment, be used for a peace conference designed to settle the differences of the warring nations and bring about the signing of a treaty of peace for which the world is praying.

New Cycle of Brotherly Love.

One effect of the war now in progress will be to emphasize the importance of and intensify the interest in the great international peace congress projected by the management of the Exposition. Let us hope that this war may be recorded history before this congress convenes. The horrors of present day warfare will then be fully appreciated, and those most directly affected, may be available with their experience and advice to assist in preparing a code of international law and police powers and provide such other recommendations as may be best fitted to insure lasting peace.

And when we look into the future may we not see the new cycle of brotherly love superseding the discord of today. May the settlement of international strife by war and blood and suffering and devastation be supplanted by conference and negotiation and arbitration; then will follow rest and peace and contentment for the everlasting enjoyment of mankind. As John G. Whittier beautifully expressed it in his Centennial hymn in 1876:

Oh, make thou us through centuries long In peace secure, in justice strong; Around our gift of freedom draw The safeguards of thy righteous law, And, cast in some diviner mold, Bid the new cycle shame the old.

HEALTH PROMOTES HAPPINESS

Without health, genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to. Take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one tonight.

Simon Heath says the man who goes to church because he is afraid to stay away, never hears much of the sermon.

Dr. Bunton said once upon a time a man invented glasses through which people could see their own faults. He started to death.

Newt Dollar says if there was as much kissing after marriage as there was before marriage, a lot of perfectly good divorce lawyers would be selling insurance for a living.

ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womanhood a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

Albert Elder says when he first gets her she gets heavenly bliss out of his home-coming caresses. But after a while she gets hail columbia if supper isn't ready the minute he gets in the house.

Uncle Gus Bentley asks why it is that the fellows who are most in need of good advice, are the lads who are always trying to give it away.

Alek Garner says there is no place like home. Maybe that's the reason why some married men never spend any more time there than they have to. Billy Cox says a man is always willing to give the devil his dues, but the grocer, tailor and the butcher can wait.

Sam Watson says if Billy Sunday keeps on giving everybody h—ll, there won't be any left for a married woman to give her husband when he comes home at 3 a. m.

Tom Bugg says you can find out more about a man's real nature by going into a poker game with him than you can by going to a prayer meeting with him.

Newt Dollar says we are always willing to forgive those who trespass against others.

Ed Baker says the married woman who stays at home and does her own house work, may have rough hands, but her conscience is usually smoother than that of the married one who paints up and gads around town all day.

The Boy From The Forks Of The Creek.

Don't poke fun at the boy who comes in from the forks of the creek with seed in his hair and mud on his face, patches on the north department of his pants and just one gallus on. He may look seedy now, but ten years from now he may be president of some bank, pastor of some church, judge of some court, or physician to some people. Just because a boy lives in town, wears two kinds of socks, parts his hair in the middle, sucks a cigarette, curls his hair on his mother's curling tongs, and has a daddy with spondulix to burn, that is no sign that he is going to run this country in the future. We'll put our money on the sound, sane and sensible boy from the forks of the creek.—Pembroke Journal.

Angry Buzzard wrecks Machine.

Vincennes, Ind., May.—While en route to this city on a business mission, Attorney Earl Loucks, A. L. Brocksmith, coal operator, and Ellis Hooper and son, all of Bicknell, had a narrow escape from injury. The auto in which they were riding frightened two buzzards which were sitting in the road devouring a dead rabbit. Mr. Brocksmith, who was driving the car did not slacken speed upon approaching the buzzards, thinking probably they would fly away in due time. The buzzards, when the car neared them, did move, but the larger of the two evidently was not much impressed with the treatment accorded them and flew over the wind-shield, striking the driver of the car in the face with its wings. Mr. Brocksmith lost control of the car and the auto with its four occupants was ditched. The men suffered only slight injuries but the car was badly damaged.

Governor Carroll, who was accompanying Tennessee's recent visitor, aroused the Marquis, and he was put ashore in a yawl. Before the boat went down most of the cabin passengers had been landed. The remainder with all the deck passengers and the crew, were forced to take to the water or cling to the wrecked steamer. The Marquis lost his hat, most of his papers, a carriage and a little dog. just followed the man's career ever since we him. The first thing that happened to that man was that he was born, but he had nothing to do with it. However, we mentioned him, although his parents were entitled the credit. When he was in his early twenties he got married. We mentioned that, including name of bride, the preacher and etc., in fact we mentioned every thing but the preacher's fee, which was not worth mentioning. We never mentioned the fact that he never won any premiums at the county fair, because he never exhibited anything. We never mentioned his name in the list of committees because he never attended anything. We never mentioned his name in the list of donors, because he never donated as much as a doughnut. We certainly have been treating this man shamefully but we will agree to run a nice obituary when the time comes.

Man Treated Badly, Orders
His Paper Stopped.

Says the Litchfield (Ill.) News-Herald:

Not long ago a man came into this office and stopped his paper because he said it was always printing a lot of things about the same people and he said he was sick of it. Now when something goes wrong with one country the government appoints a commission to investigate and find out what is the matter, and the first thing a commission investigates is the man who made the holler to see if the holler was a reasonable holler. So we appointed a commission consisting of ourselves.

Ernest Hill, Negro.

A stranger, W. T. Moss, of Marion, Ky., was the victim of a bold robbery about 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the north end of the city, when a negro snatched a wallet containing $33 out of his hip pocket and ran away with it, according to the story told Magistrate C. W. Em-

Moss accused Ernest Hill, a local negro of the crime in the warrant and he was picked up about three o'clock by Patrolman Charles Mitchell and put in the city lock-up to await examination in police court this morning.—Paducah News Democrat.

In the "Class Roll" which follows is the name of a Crittenden county boy of whom we are proud.

Notice.

Decoration day will be observed at Chapel Hill, Saturday, May 29th, 1915. Everybody invited. Especially all who own lots and all who have friends buried there, are expected to be present.

Part of the day will be spent in cleaning off graves. Services will be held in the church, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., followed by decoration of the graves. Everybody bring flowers; dinner at noon.

Annual election will be held. Two directors to be elected, also a president of board of directors other good things:

"In demanding that the whole people shall be allowed a vote on the question of prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, I am but insisting on a well-recognized principle of Democracy. The Democratic party has always believed in giving the whole electorate a voice in the settlement of any great question affecting their welfare. The quarter of a million Democrats in Kentucky know that this is their right, and they will want some explanation when men seeking their support deny them this right. Only recently two candidates for Governor in the Democratic primary have made speeches in which they devoted much to discussion of 'personal liberty,' 'confiscation of property,' and to a denunciation of State-wide prohibition. Any one reading their speeches will naturally infer that they are not willing to allow the people a vote on the question. To oppose State-wide prohibition is one thing, but to oppose the right of the people to vote on it is quite another thing.

"No good Democrat can deny the people this right. And the candidate who thinks he can dodge a specific declaration on the subject will have to guess again. No evasion, no long-winded dissertation on 'personal liberty' will take the place of a plain, straight-forward statement as to whether they are willing to allow the Democracy of the State a vote on the question. The gentlemen had as well be screwing up their courage, for the public is going to insist on a plain statement of their attitude on this question.

"These same candidates are a bit mixed on another question. They wax eloquent in defense of 'personal liberty,' and in the same breath ask the public to believe that they are deeply in love with the County Unit Law. I wonder if it has occurred to either of the gentlemen just how awkward he appears in this duel role. To vote a county dry under the County Unit Law is to deny to every wet man in the county his 'personal liberty' to buy or sell booze. No 'personal liberty' advocate can declare himself for the County Unit Law without creating a grave suspicion of his sincerity; the two positions are absolutely incompatible. To vote the whole State dry is no greater interference with the 'personal liberty' of a man than it is to vote his particular county dry. The public will be afforded a lot of amusement during this campaign by the antics of wet candidates in their efforts to make the voters believe they are for the County Unit Law."

Henry Sherman Driver, generally known as "Doc" died at his home in this city at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning of a long illness, said by some to have been pelagra, but on which the local physicians differed. The funeral was preached by Rev. W. T. Oakley at the residence at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday and interment in the new cemetery.

The deceased was born June 2nd, 1858, near Piney in this county and had lived here in the county most of his life. His wife who was Miss Alice Clark, died 16 years ago, leaving 5 children, all of whom survive. They are in order of age: Minnie wife of Eb Guess, Seldon, Ebba wife of Harry D. Vaughn, of this county, Hugh and Ruth.

Mr. Driver was a member of the Crooked Creek Baptist church and had been for many years. There were many flowers at the grave evidencing the esteem in which he was held by his neighbors. Peace to his ashes

Endorse Representative Stone.

Col. Ed. D. Stone, Representative of Marion, Crittenden county, the home of Senator Ollie M. James, will ask for re-nomination at the hands of the Republicans in the Livingston-Crittenden district. This stalwart disciple of Republicanism was the author of the two and one-half cent railroad passenger fare bill.

Representative Stone was one of the youngest members of the 1914 Legislature. He was reared by a christian mother in a christian home. Being left fatherless at eleven, he had to "paddle his own canoe," but his path has always been one of rectitude and perseverance. He is held in great esteem by all who know him, and is admired by both old and young.—Kentucky Sun.—Advertisement

RICHMOND RE-UNION.

I am informed by Mr. R. E. Parsons, Passenger Agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Rail Road, that a special train will be run over that road, leaving Louisville at 7:30 p. m., May 30th and reach Richmond at 5 p. m. May 31st accomodation of all Confederate veterans and others who desire to attend the re-union.

The train will be made of clean comfortable coaches and sleeping cars, and will run solid from Louisville to Richmond.

All persons who live in the territory served by the Illinois Central R. R. can go to Louisville on East bound day trains of that road and make close connection with the Chesapeake & Ohio special. Those living in the territory served by the Louisville & Nashville and reaching Louisville during the day of the 30th will be in time for the special.

All who desire sleeping car reservations should write direct to R. E. Parsons, Louisville, Ky.

I desire to urge every veteran, and all sons and daughters of veterans and their friends, who can do so, to go to Richmond, as this is likely to be the last Re-union in the Capitol of the Confederacy, and consequently the last chance we will ever have to visit that city and the great battle fields at so low a cost as is now offered by the railroads.

A Noble Soul Passes From Labor to Its Reward.

Will Wheeler (col.) was born in 1875, died May 14, 1915. His life was spent around Marion, Ky. He has gone from Marion; but yet he lives here, in deeds and acts. He left a home for his wife and oil in the jug. He was one of real worth as a church man, as a neighbor, and as a christian citizen.

His doctor, Dr. Cook, did what he could to save him. On Friday afternoon he called in Drs. Perry and Moreland; but they could do him no good.

The funeral took place at the colored M. E. church, preached by the pastor, G. W. Moore.

He was held in the highest esteem by the whites and all who knew him. He was interred by the Masons.

His wife, Nannie Wheeler, and sister, Nannie Stevens, thank the friends for their kindness.

Don't Endanger It With Calomel.

It is generally agreed by experts in this country and Europe that calomel has a very violent effect on the system. This accounts for the familiar disagreeable feeling accompanying a dose, and the weakened condition following it.

LIV-VER-LAX is a harmless vegetable compound, that is a mild, but effective substitute for calomel. It has all the effectiveness, but not the effect, of calomel. Its splendid value has brought it into such wide use that in some states it has almost entirely replaced calomel.

Just try LIV-VER-LAX once, and you'll never use calomel again. Insist on the genuine, bearing the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigby, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, Marion, Ky.]
